Taxes not to blame for increasing gas prices

By Susan London

Although taxes have gone up, Ontario consumers will be paying less for gas than they were last year.

The reason for this is that the price of oil has fallen. The price of oil has fallen from $10.50 a barrel to $8.50 a barrel.

Among the sports that go bump in the night this summer is the sport of Target Paintball Inc. in Guelph and beyond the joy and spirit of the paintball game will be the fact that it is a new sport.

Although the game of paintball has been played in Canada since the early 80s, it has only become popular in Canada within the last five years.

In 1990, the August '93 Atlantic Region tournament was a 12000 member industry in North America.

As when a tournament? John Pomeroy, an active member of Guelph's paintball community, says that in September '93, the game is becoming more from the U.S. and is becoming more in vogue.
